How can LESI or other LES Societies further support you?

It has been helpful to be able to tap on and also include other LES societies for on-line webinars. We hope this continues.

We are also happy to have LESI members speak at our events. If there is a list of LESI speakers who are keen to conduct a session for our members, that would be useful.

Industry reports and survey results (e.g. the royalty rates) would also be very welcomed by our members.
